MILWAUKEE:

Saturday Morning, June 13.

The Weather—The Crops—Business—Emigration.

If we had reason to complain of a long winter and a late spring, there is a bright prospect of a very fine summer. The weather for these first two weeks of June has been all that the husbandman could ask. We have had frequent showers, followed by genial sunshine, and under the continued influences of warmth and moisture, vegetation of all kinds has made wonderful progress. From all quarters of our State comes up to us the same story about the crops. The wheat promising condition of the crops. never looked better, at this season of the year, than it does now; and the same is true of other grain. The pastures afford rich pickings to the lately starving cattle, and good butter, at reasonable prices, is no longer a rarity. Fruit of all kinds, save peaches and cherries, promises a more abundant yield than our State has yet known. In short, if the season continues as it has begun, we shall have the heaviest and best crops this year that Wisconsin has yet produced.

Business is very good for the season. Our receipts and shipments thus far, are double what they were last year. There is great activity in building and valuable improvements in progress, in all parts of our city. Money, however, is still decidedly scarce, and this want interferes with a good many projected enterprises and embarrasses trade. It is hardly possible, however, that with the present high prices and active demand for our produce, the extreme stringency in money matters can last much longer.

Travel is large and on the increase. All our Rail Roads are doing well, and every public house in the city is nightly filled with guests. The opening of the Newhall House, a few weeks hence, will attract hundreds of fresh visitors to our city. Emigration is larger this year, than for several years past. Every day large parties of Germans, Norwegians, Belgians, &c., land here, from the boats or Lake Shore cars, and start off for their new homes in the interior. Indeed, there seems to be every element at work in our favor, and we may reasonably and thankfully indulge the hope that the present will be a year of unexampled growth and prosperity in our favored State.

A Mean Conspiracy.

We adverted, yesterday, to the concerted attempt of his political opponents, in Chicago, to blacken the character of Mayor WENTWORTH by procuring an arrest on a trumped up charge of stealing mail-bags. Immediately upon his arrest, the conspirators had the fact extensively telegraphed all over the country. The item thus appears in the Detroit Free Press:

A Black Republican Mayor Stealing Mail Bags.

CHICAGO, June 9.

John Wentworth, the Mayor, was arrested this morning by the U. S. Marshal, charged with stealing mail bags. He was held to bail in $3,000, at an examination this P. M. The mail bags were found on his premises. The proof is said to be positive.

This "Black Republican Mayor" was promptly discharged from arrest by Judge DRUMMOND, of the U. S. Court, after a brief examination, and the conspirators were not only defeated, but disgraced. We do not remember to have heard of a meaner, or more malicious, attempt to injure a man's character, and rejoice to know that they who tried it on, have been "boisted with their own petard."

McGREGOR & MISSOURI R. R.—ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.—The McGregor, Iowa, Times, informs us that at the meeting of the stockholders of the McGregor & Missouri R. R., the following gentlemen were elected Directors:

Hon. George H. Walker, Milwaukee; Alex McGregor, McGregor; Duncan Ferguson, St. Charles; R. D. Clinton, Waukesha, Wis.; John Thompson, Clermont; Jedediah Brown, McGregor; Lorenzo Bailey, Chickasaw.

The greatest degree of unanimity prevailed throughout the whole deliberations, and from all were reiterated assurances of success, the Wisconsin Stockholders expressing to the board their utmost confidence, and pledging their hearty cooperation and assistance in the enterprise.

The Directors met and organized by appointment of Alex McGregor, Pres't, and J. Brown, Sec'y pro tem. The balloting for officers resulted in the election of John Thompson Pres't, Alex McGregor, Treas., and J. Brown, Sec'y for the ensuing year.

Inspector of Lights.

Captain SMITH of the U. S. Topographical Engineers, has been appointed Inspector of Lights on the North-Western Lakes, in place of Captain STONEARAFES, transferred to other duty. Captain SMITH left here, a few days since, for the North, on official business, and will be back early next week. The steamer MICHIGAN, now in the Government employ, is under his orders and is loading at this port with brick to build a Light House on Lake Superior.

Regatta at Chicago.

In our advertising columns this morning will be found the notice of the grand Regatta, to be given at Chicago on the Fourth of July next.—The prizes offered are liberal ones and the contest will doubtless be a very animated one. But for engagements at home, on the Fourth, our Milwaukee clubs would very generally attend the Chicago Regetta; and, as it is, may have a representative or two there.

MILWAUKEE SENTINEL.—This paper makes its daily entrance into our office after a temporary absence, and is welcomed as one of our best Republican exchanges. We can recommend it as a good newspaper, well conducted, excepting in its politics. In this matter we regret that a paper possessing so high a character and influence as the Sentinel, should give countenance to a party and sentiments that the editor must be convinced are working evil, and only evil in our otherwise happy and glorious Union.—Fond du Lac Union.

We are under obligations to the Union for its compliments, and beg to answer it that if the Sentinel did not truly and heartily believe that the Republican party and principles were right in themselves, and working good and only good for our whole country, we should quit them forthwith. That our friend, the U. S. Marshal, (and editor of the Fond du Lac Union,) should see these things in a different light, just now, does not surprise us, and we make all due allowance for his peculiar position.

Result of a Free State Triumph.

The St. Louis Democrat is exceedingly jubilant over what it justly considers the result of the late Free State triumph—the rapid appreciation of real estate in that city. It says that the emigration both to the city and State is unexampled,—and that sales of property are daily made at prices that have never been approached before. These are legitimate consequences of the revival at the polls, that free white labor is hereafter to be encouraged and protected. The Democrat has proved itself a true prophet.—Chicago Tribune.

It is this able, fearless and eloquent champion of FREE LABOR that the News and kindred prints denounce as false and treacherous to the "National Democratic Party"—the said party being intent on degrading Free Labor by bolstering up and extending the institution of SLAVERY.

RACINE AND MISSISSIPPI R. R.—The earnings of the Racine and Mississippi Railroad Company in the month of May were $31,143 11 on seventy-one miles of road—equal to $438 91 a mile.—This road was opened to Durand, eighty-six miles from Racine, on the 26th May.

BREAK IN THE CANAL.—The telegraph yesterday reported a very serious break in the canal, near Danville, N. Y., caused by heavy rains and freshets. This is on the Genesee Valley, and not on the Erie Canal; though the latter has suffered and continues to suffer, from repeated breaks in the new portions of the work.

Masonic.

At the regular annual communication of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Wisconsin Free and Accepted Masons, held in the Mason Hall, Ludington's Block, in this city, on the 10th, 11th and 12th of June inst., the following officers were elected for the year ensuing:—

M. W. H. S. Baird, Grand Master, Green Bay.
R. W. G. F. Huntington Deputy G. Master, Portage City.
" L. M. Tracy, S. Grand Warden, Milwaukee.
" L. M. Strong, J. Grand Warden, Highland.
" Wm. Chappell, Grand Treas'r, Watertown.
" Wm. R. Smith, Grand Sec'y, Mineral Point.
" C. C. Cheney, Grand Marshall, Janesville.
W., E. F. Ogden, Grand Sen'r Deac. New Diggins.
" A. S. Wood, " Jun. Deac., Madison.
" J. T. Prior " Chaplain, Shellsburg.
" J. E. Thomas, " Sword Bearer, Sheboygan.
" Wm. M. Clarke, " Pursuivant, Beloit.
" Morris Louis, " Steward, Milwaukee.
" J. Robinson, " " Beaver Dam.
Bro. E. Clewett, " Tyler, Madison.

THE MILWAUKEE AND MISSISSIPPI R. R.—The Albany Evening Journal of June 9th, thus speaks of our Pioneer Rail Road:

The opening of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Rail Road line to Prairie du Chien, renders a trip from the East to St. Paul more pastime, while it is one of the most delightful routes on the continent.

We learn from A. B. ELLIOT, General Agent of this line, that the journey has recently been performed between New York and St. Paul, over this route, in seventy-one hours actual traveling time.

The tendency of travel and transit of freight is large over the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. It is destined to be a very popular route between the East and the West.

TEXAS.—The following are the Democratic nominations for Texas:

Governor—Hardin R. Runnels, of Bowie.

Lieut. Governor—Francis R. Lubbock, of Harris.

Com. Land Office—Francis M. White, of Jackson.

Congress—West District—Guy M. Bryan, of Brazoria.

Congress—East District—John H. Reagan, of Anderson.

Gen. SAM HOUSTON has taken the stump as an independent candidate for Governor, and is supported by the Know Nothings.

FINISHING THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—We learn from the Republican, of Sing Sing, that Dr. Brandreth has resolved to devote the proceeds of his business, which are stated to be $40,000 a year, to the immediate completion of the Washington Monument. The Republican says: "The boldness of the undertaking is equalled only by its disinterestedness, but the energy and the liberality of Dr. Brandreth furnish sufficient guarantees that it will be carried vigorously forward to its completion." Dr. B. recently gave $1,000 to the Dudley Observatory.

The Cincinnati Steam Fire Engines.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia North American writes from Cincinnati the following interesting particulars of the steam fire engines in use in that city, and their performance at the late railroad celebration:

The most attractive and distinguishing feature of the day was the parade and performance of the several steam fire engines. At 10 o'clock A. M., all the fire companies in the city formed in procession and marched through the principal streets with their engines, including seven steam engines drawn by four or six splendid horses, making a fine show. These steam engines are relied on principally here in case of fire, and after a trial of four years, in all circumstances and weathers, they are found in every respect superior to the hand engines. Those paraded and now in use in this city, are all of Latta's patent, an entirely different article from that of Shawks, sent to your city. The number of men enrolled in the five companies of this city, is now only 300, and most of those are in the hand companies still retained in the outskirts of the city.—In 1849 the old hand engine system, the number was 1800. There are only from twelve to fifteen men employed to each steam engine company, including hostlers, firemen, engineers, and horsemen. The annual expense of maintaining one of these companies is from three to five thousand dollars, according to the size of the engine. The repairs of the whole seven steam engines the past year have not exceeded $2500. They are found more reliable than the hand engine, there being only one instance in the last three years where one has failed to do service when brought out to a fire. They can be brought out in very short time. The fire is kindled the moment the alarm is heard, and in from four to eight minutes they are ready for full service.

The engines are of three different sizes, costing respectively $8000, $6000 and $5000 each. The largest will throw through two 1¼ inch nozzles to a distance exceeding a hand engine. The smallest which can be drawn by two horses, and fed by a fire plug, will throw through a 1¼ inch nozzle a distance of 210 feet.

Their efficiency is shown by the result here.—An extensive fire is considered here an impossibility. Not long since a large smoke-house, filled with thousands of hams, caught on fire. Under the hand engine system such a fire was never extinguished till the building was consumed. The steam engines put it out in a few minutes, saving nearly all the contents. If any of your companies have had experience in extinguishing burning lard they know the difficulty of the work.

Another advantage is the quietness of their operations. A lady of your city was lately visiting here, and the house adjoining caught fire.—The alarm was given, the engines drove up, put out the fire, and departed. The lady expressed her astonishment at not hearing a loud word spoken. After the bell strikes there is no shouting, nor yelling. A few Sabbaths since, a fire occurred near a church. The services continued uninterrupted, while the fire was quietly extinguished by the steam companies.

A good test of their worth is the estimation in which they are held by the insurance companies. The insurance companies of Louisville learning their value from the results on the insurance companies here, have purchased a steam engine and presented it to that city.

At 4 o'clock this P. M. there was a grand exhibition of the steam engines. They were all in their different station houses when the bell struck, and they all lighted their fires and drove to the Fifth street market space, as if to a fire.—within four minutes after the bell struck the first water was thrown, and in six minutes six streams were in operation, and after throwing horizontally a short time, the nozzles were all inserted, in a row, upright in a frame, and they all threw perpendicular streams. The execution astonished all Philadelphians present.

During the exhibition, General Case, accompanied by Governor Chase, Mayor Thomas, and some others, were driven into the square in an open carriage, and, by the carelessness of the firemen, they were all thoroughly drenched.

LAND GRANT R.R. BONDS.—The N. Y. Tribune of the 10th instant, has the following item:

The subscription to the land grant privilege bonds of the Chicago and Fond du Lac Road is proceeding very favorably, having reached $700,000. A considerable portion of this has been taken by Connecticut stockholders, In Hartford Mr. A. Gill, for self and friends, subscribed for $176,000; Mr. David Wilkinson, for $88,000, and Mr. Wm. Jarvis for $50,000. Mr. Wm. B. Ogden takes $100,000.

THE MILWAUKEE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—We were happy to meet, on Thursday last, an old and valued acquaintance in the person of F. M. WALLACE, the General Agent for this reliable insurance company in Milwaukee, and our readers will understand by "reliable," that we mean the Mutual. Our readers will remember that we mentioned the damage by fire to the house of Mr. LOOMIS. The property was insured in the Milwaukee Mutual, and the damage assessed was promptly paid by their agent, Mr WALLACE. Surely the Milwaukee Mutual is a good company.—Ozaukee Advertiser.

HO! FOR WISCONSIN.—Conductor REMINGTON informs us that one hundred and sixty-four passengers arrived here on last night's train, one hundred and thirty-seven of which were Danes and Swedes, destined for the Northern part of the State. They are an intelligent, robust, and industrious people, and we wish them prosperity in their new home.—Fond du Lac Union.

☞ The farmers are in ecstacies at the flattering prospects which meets their gaze on every side of realizing abundant crops of every variety; being quite a transition from the gloomy forebodings which stared them in the face a few weeks ago.—Jeffersonian June 12.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

ST. ANTHONY AND MINNEAPOLIS.

The La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R.

ST. ANTHONY, June, 6th, 1857.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As your paper stands at the head of the Wisconsin Press—pardon me for the compliment spoken to your face—though all must acknowledge its truthfulness—it seems very proper that you should be fully posted as to so important a matter, "the head of navigation" on the Mississippi river. The city of St. Paul has, ever since the country has been settled, been hitherto considered the head of navigation.

But now the question is settled that St. Anthony and Minneapolis are at the head of navigation, for every day, since the boats came through Lake Pepin, we have had daily arrivals, and during twenty-four hours, one day last week, there were five arrivals of steamers, and on Thursday a side wheel steamer came easily up from St. Louis to Cheever's Landing. It is the unanimous opinion that it is as easy to run steamers to this city as to Cincinnati, on the Ohio River. Many of the Ohio boats have come around on this river, and are running up to the Falls, reaping a golden harvest. Even the Galena, Dunlieth, Dubuque and Prairie du Chien Packets could run up to this point, and would if they were not owned, in part, and controlled by parties interested in making St. Paul the head of navigation. From Cheever's Landing there is but one mile and a quarter of land carriage to the landing of the up river boats, the H. M. Rice, North Star and Enterprise; the last now receiving her machinery, will be out in a few days. The Rice and North Star make each two trips per week from this place to St. Cloona and Sank Rapids, seventy-five miles above us, and they are loaded with freight and carrying from 150 to 200 passengers, clearing from $600 to $800 each trip.

Your city and its Railroad interests have been represented and our Territory honored by your Railroad King, (Mr. K.) one of your Ex-Mayors and by your Ex-M. C., and late candidate for Congress, a gentleman whose energy, skill and tact, as a politician and business man, entitled him to success, but the "rural districts" cut him. But, taken all together, your able men in whose hands is the success of Milwaukee Railroads, have assured our people that "two years from next fall we may breakfast in St. Anthony, and take supper in Milwaukee." "So mote it be."

Milwaukee and St. Anthony united by a Railroad, what a grand idea, what an age is this!—St. Anthony and Minneapolis together, are soon to be to Minnesota what Milwaukee is to Wisconsin—the great commercial Metropolis. Then let these two cities be united—let us dine with you to-day and you with us to morrow.

ST. ANTHONY.

A Visit to Milwaukee—Appearance of the Crops.

On Monday last we made a flying visit to Milwaukee, and while on the road as well as in the city, we "took notes, an' faith we'll print 'em." Crops of all kinds look quite as forward as usual at this season, and fully as well as at this time last year, along the portions of the road in Jefferson and Waukesha counties, but as we approach the lake, they do not look so much advanced, with perhaps the exception of the fruit crop.—Fruit trees are unusually full of blossoms, and give promise of a large crop if nothing unusual occurs. Very little of the winter wheat is killed, and despite the croaking of speculators, we believe the wheat crop next fall will be heavier by far than it was last year, owing to the greater breadth of land sown. Corn is rather backward but with favorable weather from the present time, and usually late fall, an average yield may be expected.

This was our first visit to the commercial metropolis of our State, since the past year, and we were very much surprised at her rapid strides in growth during the intervening period of time.—The hard times seems to have very little effect on her continually increasing business; an i the almost innumerable number of buildings in various stages of construction give indubitable evidence of the enterprise and energy of her inhabitants, and their abiding faith in her future prosperity. A number of exceedingly beautiful and substantial business blocks are in process of erection on East Water street, and also on other—to us as yet—unnamed streets. But those which came more particularly under our notice were the Albany Block and the Newhall House, which, are by far the handsomest buildings in the State. Let what other cities may come in competition with Milwaukee, she is and always will be the matchless commercial centre of Wisconsin, and nothing can possibly prevent her maintaining herpresent position.—Watertown Chronicle, June 11.

ACCIDENT AND SUDDEN DEATH OF A RESPECTED CITIZEN AND OLD PIONEER.—We are pained to announce the sudden death of Abel Rosdall, for many years a citizen of this town, and among its first settlers. While engaged in oiling the machinery of his grist mill in the town of Burke, on Saturday last, he was caught in the cogs of the large wheels and crushed so badly that he died in a very short time afterwards. Intelligence of the sad affair did not reach us until this morning.

The deceased came to Wisconsin (Territory) in 1828, in company with our old townsman, Mr. James Morrison, as the hired man, and settled at Potter's Grove in Iowa county. Some years afterwards he removed to the margin of first Lake, in Dane, while this county was in its primal rudeness and inhabited by but few white settlers.—When the last Sauk or Black Hawk war broke out, he volunteered his services, and joined the Territorial forces, Mr. Morrison furnishing him a horse for the contest. In the campaign he distinguished himself for valor and energy, and was of great service to the country, on account of his experience with the Indians. He was well known among the first residents of Madison, as a hardy, fearless and energetic man—one who would peril his life at any time for the safety of his fellow men—a stout hearted and muscular pioneer—who could cope with exigences that would make many of more refinement andoless courage shrink back fear-struck or disheartened.

At the time of his death, Mr. B. was possessed of a large property in this city, besides his mill and other property in the town of Burke, all of which he had acquired by persevering industry. He was at the time of his death fifty-two years of age, and leaves many friends and relatives to lament his loss.—Madison Argus.

THE SERVICE AND THE REWARD.—About a fortnight ago, the telegraph gave us wordy accounts of a rough but patriotic California hunter, who had come all the way from the auriferous State to Washington, to generously lay at the feet of the President one famous buck-horn chair—curious, wonderful, unique, fantastic and remarkable. Speeches were made on both sides, and Mr. Seth Kinman—for that was the valiant hunter's name—was voted a brick by the democracy, and a simple bore by the newspapers that paid five cents a word for the account. But nobody supposed that this was the latest form of getting an office, until yesterday, when the telegraph again, at five cents a word, informed us that Mr. Seth Kinman had been appointed to assist in removing certain Indians on the Pacific coast, for which he was to receive at the rate of $1800 a year. As the Indians are very slow moving animals under such circumstances, it is not unjust to suppose that he will take at least four years to remove them. Thus Mr. Kinman's buck-horn chair may be set down as worth (to him) $7200. Quite a remarkable chair.—Boston Traveler.

ACCIDENT TO JOEL NOURSE.—On Saturday, May 30, Joel Nourse, senior partner of Nourse, Mason & Company, of Boston and Worcester, the largest agricultural implement manufacturing house in America, was thrown from the top of an upsetting stage at Natick, breaking one thigh just below the hip, and inflicting other injuries. Such an injury to such a man is a public calamity, for he has probably done more than any other man in this age to improve the plow and other farm implements by his own mechanical skill and by the liberal use of his ample means to foster and bring to light the inventive skill of others. The death of Mr. Nourse would be a still greater calamity, which we hope the farmers who have benefitted by his genius may be long preserved from. For his speedy recovery thre will be many earnest prayers.—N. Y. Tribune, June 10.

The vote on Tuesday on proposition of the Lake Shore R. R. for $300,000 of our county bonds has probably carried by about 150 majority. The vote in the county was of course very light, as none but real estate owners were allowed to vote. Our city gave 53 majority for the road.—Depere 53 do. Town of Depere 12 do. Glenmore 21 do. Rockland 34 do; Lawrence 12 do. We learn that the Borough and town of Howard gave about 100 votes against the proposition.—Green Bay Advocate.

COLLECTOR OF THE PORT.—A. HEIDEKAMP of this village has been appointed collector of this port in place of Hon. WILLIAM H. RAMSEY whose commission expires with Mr. JOHN WHITE's of Milwaukee.—Ozaukee Advertiser.

☞ Thurlow Weed, after looking over our city, the other day, remarked to us, that he had never seen so beautiful a place, and his range has been wide. This is truly a high compliment. Madison Jour.

Religious Intelligence.

The Hon. Messrs M. STRONG, has joined, we understand, the Protestant Episcopal Church at Mineral Point. But not as we have the best authority for knowing, in consequence of or through any "revival" at that place or elsewhere. Mr. S—— has too much good sense to be influenced by revival excitements.—[COMMUNICATED.]

PEDDLING POPERY.—The London Record tells the following extraordinary story, if true:

"A short time since a decently dressed pedlar, in the course of his rambles, called at a house at the West end of London, and, by dint of perseverance, succeeded in gaining the drawing room, where the young ladies of the house were sitting. He presented his wares—laces and fashionable haberdashery of vari us kinds. Having duly excited his saleables, and having disposed of them, he directed the course of conversation very adroitly into another channel, and ultimately proposed to be permitted to introduce the young ladies to Father Faber, of the Brompton Oratory. Some surprise was expressed on hearing this proposition, and on being asked what he had to do with the "Oratorian Fathers," he admitted that he was himself a French Priest, whose occupation it was thus to insinuate himself into society, or as the Apostle would say, to 'creep into houses, and lead captive silly women.' So it appears, we have in our midst a Jesuit agency—an underground current, trying to subvert the cause of Scripture truth, and to subserve the cause of antichristian error.

EVILS OF PUBLIC EXTEMPORE PRAYER.—The following is one of Mr. Henry Ward Beecher's late Star papers in the Independent:

One man falls into a whining tone, another prays in an audible whisper, another exalts his voice for beyond the natural conversational pitch, and others lose the natural tones entirely, and pray in a kind of sacred falsetto. Some talk in tenor but pray in bass: some converse in upper tones, but pray in tenor tones. Ha brother first speaks then prays, a stranger listening from the outside would think different men had been speaking. This habit becomes very marked in the ministrations of clergymen, many of whom come, at length, to have a conversation voice, a praying voice, a hymn voice, a reading voice, and a preaching voice.

Men are seldom entirely true to themselves and natural in their prayers. There is a certain round of topics supposed to be necessary to a symmetrical prayer. These they punctilliously introduce whether their heart craves such utterance or not. Of all forms of prayer, extemporaneous forms are the worst. They have all the evils of written prayers without their propriety. If, when a christian brother were in full tide of prayer along the regular succession of topics, Christ should really appear before him, how extremely impertinent would most of the petitions seem, addressed to a living and visible Saviour. Turn a man's real feeling is not expressed, and matters quite good in themselves, but almost wholly indifferent to him, constitute the bulk of his petition. Reverential tones and well-connected sentences, expressing very proper ideas, do not constitute prayer. The very essence of praying is, that it conveys the real desires, or thoughts of the supplicant.—When a man really reverics God, how simple is the language of veneration! But if his heart is breaking with sorrow, or depressed by care, or fretted by ill-adjusted affairs, why should he leave the real strain of feeling and strike into a false key.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.—The May Anniversaries fill the English papers with solid columns of statistics and speeches. The income of the church missionary society has been £122,000; of the bible society £140,000. Its issues during the year have been a million and a half copies, the total since its foundation being over 32,500,000 copies.—Morning Advertiser.

IRELAND.—The Irish Mission Society reports 97 converts in the field, all told, and an income of £38,114,—a decrease of some £3,600 since last year. The number of converts from popery is not given.

The Romish Bishop of Ardagh was lately mobbed at Newtownforbes by his own people. They did not like his way of electioneering at the late voting for members of Parliament.—Church Journal.

SCOTLAND.—Resolutions in favor of union among the various sects of Presbyterians, have been signed by 140 leading laymen of the Free Kirk and the United Presbyterians (not "united" yet it seems.) They are all ouisiders, and naturally are willing to come in for somewhat of that which now the Established Kirk monopolizes.—Ib.

☞ Nashoa has had a narrow escape. The Rev. Dr. Cole writes us:—

We had a wonderful escape on Sunday, May 10th. The rear of Bishop White Hall (the finest large three-story brick building) was on fire from a spark from the chimney. It was seen by Mr. Samuel Beach brother of the Rev. James Lloyd Breck) just in time to save our noble building. The Lord was with us, and saved us this time also.

☞ Protestants will be pleased to learn that the Roman Catholic Bible is at last brought within the means of nearly all members of that Church. The following is an editorial notice from the Boston Pilot of May 16th.

CHEAPEST BIBLE EVER PUBLISHED.—Mr. Donahoe has just issued the cheapest Catholic edition of the sacred scriptures ever published. It is printed on good paper, fair type, and has a fairly record. Sold for the low price of $1.

SPIRITUALISM.—Mrs. MARY S. GOVE NICHOLS, whom the "spirits" have directed to renounce spiritualism, and join the Roman Catholic Church which condemns spiritualism, in a long letter to the Boston Pilot says:—

Every Spiritualist should know that this Church has been, for eighteen hundred years, the scene of a constant succession of miraculous interpositions, and Spiritual manifestations. The Lives of the Saints are full of such marvels, as well attested as any of the present day. The life of St. Francis Xavier, while a missionary in India, was one continuous scene of miracles. We read in his life, at every consecration of the Host, of the consecrated wafer flying of itself to the mouths of communicants; of Saints, in ecstacies of prayer being lifted up from the ground without visible support; of innumerable miracles of healing. The wonders of Spiritualism are all old stories in the Church, where the communion of the Saints, or the intercourse between the visible and invisible worlds, has existed from the beginning.

THE NEW U. S. COURT HOUSE IN BOSTON.—A letter from Washington to the New York Times has the following items of Boston interest:

"Watson Freeman, Esq., United States Marshal of Massachusetts, had an interview with the President on Friday last, in relation to the purchase of a site for the new Court House and Post Office. The President said that the act of the last Congress appropriating $150,000 for the Court House conflicted with the act of 1851, authorizing the President to contract for building a Post Office and Court House, to be approved by Congress, and that he should therefore wait until next session, when he would ask for the passage of an act to relieve him from all embarrassment on this subject.

"The Marshal, in course of conversation, remarked to the President that they had had no more fugitive slaves in Boston of late. 'It is a pity,' replies the President, with his most wicked smile, 'that you haven't a few more Democrats there.'

The intimate connection in which the President places Democrats in Boston and fugitive slaves is at least suggestive. It is quite true, indeed, that since the recent Custom House appointments, the runaway Democrats have been plentier hereabouts than runaway negroes.—Wouldn't the law of 1850 apply to the former as well as the latter?—Boston Traveller.

MOVEMENT IN REAL ESTATE.—The following is an estimate of the new buildings lately erected or projected, or in the course of completion in this city:

New Churches	$2,015,000
Banks	595,000
Hotels	440,000
Public buildings	1,495,000
Stores and warehouses	1,095,000
Private residences	2,068,000
Grand total	$9,172,000

The sales of real estate at auction during the last five months aggregate $8,581,521.

It is roughly estimated by auctioneers that ten private sales took place to one public sale; and if this proportion is true, $80,000,000 must have changed hands in the last five months for real estate.

The great rise has taken place in the 3d and 5th wards in up town lots for private houses, on the west side of the town.—N. Y. Mirror, June 10th.

A HANDSOME CONNECTION—was that made by the Appleton Belle on Monday afternoon last.—She left Fond du Lac at 6½ o'clock, made all the necessary stoppages, was detained in the locks longer than common, and arrived in Green Bay at 6 o'clock in the evening. She came in just in time to put her freight and numerous passengers on the Queen City, which boat was waiting for her, with full head of steam on. In ten minutes after the Belle arrived the handsome and beautiful Queen left her docks on her downward trip to Buffalo.—Green Bay Advocate.

THE BEST PAY.—A well known political economist says. "We pay best—first those who destroy us, generals; second those who cheat us, politicians and quacks: third, those who amuse us, singers and musicians; and least of all, those who instruct us, ministers, authors, school-masters and editors."

BLOODY TRAGEDY IN KENTUCKY—FATHER AND SON SHOT.

A Fatal Communication.

As the Lexington & Covington train were passing a couple of miles this side of Winchester, Kentucky, on Saturday, the body of a man was discovered lying near the road, and still a little farther on, another body lying in a similar condition was seen. The parties were Col. James Price, of Clark county, Ky., an old and esteemed citizen, and his son, a fine and promising young man. Both were found weltering in their blood, the latter having received the contents of a double barrel gun, loaded with buck shot, in the abdomen and lower part of his body, while the son had been shot through the body by a bullet from a revolver. Both were breathing when found, and it is yet hoped that the old gentleman may survive, although that the old gentleman may survive, although no hope is entertained of the recovery of the son. The particulars of this sanguinary affair, as we have been able to learn them, are as follows:

The lady of Col. Price, under the name of "Molly Brown," is a co-laborator to the Courier Journal, and in a recent communication to that journal she gave a description of a family residing in that neighborhood, from the mismanagement of whose head much domestic affliction and disastrous consequences had arisen.—Unfortunately a neighbor named Gay, took the matter as intended for himself, and a few days since, meeting Col. Price, he demanded if he considered himself responsible for what his wife wrote. The Colonel, who was unconscious of what he alluded to, replied in a rather jocular manner that he was not, and the parties separated upon apparently friendly terms. On Saturday morning Col. Price was riding on horseback in the spot above designated, his son, similarly mounted, being some distance behind, when he was intercepted by Gay, who carried a double-barrel gun which he discharged full at the Colonel, who fell from his horse, to all appearance dead. The son at this moment hastening to the spot, Gay drew a revolver and again fired, with such fatal effect that the son also fell. After thus disposing of his victims, who were to all appearances dead, Gay mounted and at the present writing we have not ascertained whether he has yet been re-arrested. The foregoing was gleaned from the Colonel himself, who rallied sufficiently to relate the particulars of the murderous attack, as well as its probable cause.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Terrible Calamity—Burning of the Steamer Louisiana in the Gulf—Great Loss of Life.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 2d inst., says that about one o'clock on the morning of the day previous, the steamboat Louisiana, of the Southern Steamship company, took fire, six or eight miles south east of Galveston, in the Gulf, and the result was the total loss of the vessel, a large amount of property and a great number of human lives. The fire was plainly seen from Galveston, the citizens of which place were on reconnoiter, while a missionary in India, was a continuous scene of miracles. We read in his life, at every consecration of the Host, of the consecrated wafer flying of itself to the mouths of communicants; of Saints, in ecstacies of prayer being lifted up from the ground without visible support; of innumerable miracles of healing. The wonders of Spiritualism are all old stories in the Church, where the communion of the Saints, or the intercourse between the visible and invisible worlds, has existed from the beginning.

From the Liverpool Times.

Spirited Rivalry in Equestrianism—The Yankee Ahead.

The town of Liverpool has been more than ordinarily excited this week by the rivalry of two competing companies of equestrians, contending for the support of the liegers—an English and an American company—and to each a handsome share of support has been extended. Our Transatlantic cousins do everything on a grand scale, and in what is called "go-a-headness" they far transcend the more sober realization of the race from which they spring. No stronger proof of the fact need be cited than the splendid circus edifice, with which public attention has been occupied during the last few days.

The English establishment in Dale street, has not only a "right little island," in substantial structure than shows—a building which it required some weeks to erect, and to take down will require considerable time and labor. The performances are like the buildings good and interesting, everything clean, neat and satisfactory as regards taste and arrangement. The American tent, of enormous capacity, and capable of holding 5,000 people, is made of a material which, resisting the rain, can be pulled to pieces and rolled up in an hour or two, ready for expansion again when necessity requires it. It seems to realise life in the States, where everything is made to bend to the necessities of the hour, and administer to as much animal enjoyment as possible in the shortest imaginable time.

The day preceding the American display the Englishman challenged the attention of the population by his team of eight horses, beautiful cream colored animals, which he held admiringly in hand, and he cracked his whip over their glossy backs in a manner which seemed to please and inspire rather than to annoy the brutes. It was an admirable exhibition of horse driving.—His musicians and equestrians too, followed, rendered credit to the troupe and showed that a good training, when spiritedly conducted, can still count people to follow it as a profession.

The American procession was on a larger scale—forty fine cream colored horses, four abreast with a charioteer, who were rather an ancient appearance. He did not use the whip—as he, at least, as we could perceive—and it was said that he could only check the movements of his leaders and wheelers. Three men on each side of the horses conducting them—an indispensible precaution under the circumstances, but which seemed rather to disappoint the public, which always delights in the contrivances. Then came the Indian wigwam, driven by a negro, and other illustrations incidental to the United States which the other establishment did not attempt to rival. We never remember the streets so densely crowded as they were on Thursday to witness the American display, and to such an extent was this carried that for some hours the ordinary business of the town might be said to be actually suspended.

We are glad that our townsmen have given these clever and spirited strangers so hearty a welcome, for the risk and cost of importing an equestrian troupe of this extent from the western shores of the Atlantic must be serious. But we allude to the subject here mainly for the purpose of showing how closely the character of the two nations is reflected in these rival displays—if we had time and space at our command to pursue the analogy. Speaking for ourselves, we think that the principal charm of this description of entertainment consists in raising that noble domestic animal, the horse, by a high course of training to the dignity of a rational being; and on the contrary, making man, by a similar process, rival in strength and agility the attributes of the horse—feats which the Englishman, Hengler, and the Americans, Howes and Cushing, have certainly done, each in their respective spheres.

PLAIN SPEAKING.—The Earl of Oxford, in reply to the application of the Secretary of the Norwich (England) Bible Society, that he would preside at their annual meeting, wrote as follows:

"Sir—I am surprised, and annoyed at the contents of your letter; surprised, because my well known character should have exempted me from such an application—and annoyed, because it obliges me to have this communication with you. I have long been addicted to the gaming table, I have lately taken to the turf, I fear I frequently blaspheme, and I have never distributed religious tracts. All this was well known to you and to your society; notwithstanding which, you think me a fit person for your President. May your hypocrisy be forgiven, but I would rather live in the land of sinners, than with such saints."

I am Sir,

OXFORD.

THE CITY TREASURER'S NEW OFFICE.—The City Treasurer is now very comfortably established in his new office, in Excelsior block. Like all the other offices in this fine building, it is spacious, and well and conveniently arranged. The office is in the second story, directly over the corner store, next door to the City Comptroller's office, and directly over it in a room of the same size, will be the City Clerk's office, and in an adjoining one to that, over the Comptroller's office, will be the office of the City Surveyor, both of which are on the same floor with the Common Council hall, and the School Commissioner's hall, which will be finished in about two weeks, or so. Thus all the city offices will be in the same building, and as they are all, in some way, connected, and generally have business to transact with each other, this will save a great deal of time, and much inconvenience, which they have had in running from one to the other heretofore.

The Treasurer's office is divided into two apartments, by a partition which separates one corner from the main office, which is very neatly furnished, and which is to be used as the Treasurer's "sanctum." The main office is finished in very nearly the same style as the old office, but much larger, and more cheerful and convenient.—The floor is covered with a strong rope matting, and across the whole length of the room, extends a large counter, behind which, (nearly always during business hours,) may be found our good-looking and accommodating City Treasurer, Mr. Schwarting.

Another very prominent feature which we noticed in this office, was one of Berliner & Grune's largest sized Safes, which is, itself, a small office, and in which the treasures of the city are deposited. The office is lighted with gas, and in the centre hangs a fine chandelier, which is quite an ornament to the room. When the other city offices are finished, they will certainly occupy the finest set of rooms in the city, and will be worthy of our city government.

MR. MEAGHER'S LECTURE.—The first lecture by the eloquent Irish orator, THOMAS F. MEAGHER, was listened to with delight by a very large audience last night. Very few men living are more thoroughly versed in the art of rendering "thoughts that breathe" in "words that burn," and those who desire to see how far they themselves, with their fellow men and women who are listeners, can be carried away by the power of eloquence, should not fail to attend the second and last lecture to-night.

The lectures are likely to produce a very handsome sum for the noble charity for the benefit of which they are given.

CONCERT LAST NIGHT.—The Milwaukee Concert Society gave their first public performance at Young's Hall, last night, to a moderate, but appreciative audience. The Society, like the Musical Society, is mainly composed of our German fellow-citizens. They labored, last evening, under the difficulties incident to first appearances; but with practice and perseverance will soon gain for themselves a desirable reputation. Several of the orchestra pieces and one or two of the choruses, last evening, were very well rendered; and if the Concert cannot be pronounced a decided success, it can at least be set down as giving good promise for the future.

THE GAS PIPE.—The Gas Company laid a temporary pipe across Spring street bridge yesterday, in order to supply the west side of the river with gas, while the main pipe is undergoing repairs, so that our friends had their

Gas light,
All right,
Last night,
Over the river, oh!

This pipe will be taken apart every morning, and after seven o'clock at night the draw will not be opened for vessels, until the repairs are completed on the main pipe.

THE STRAIGHT CUT.—We learn from Mr. H. W. GURNISH, the U. S. Harbor Agent, that he has obtained the use of the U. S. Steam Dredge, (for some time past lying at Chicago,) and that as soon as some repairs are made, it will be set at work dredging out the new Harbor at the Straight Cut. There is no reason why that improvement should not be completed in ample season for the fall navigation. It should not be rendered useless by the first autumn storms our Lake coasts with wrecks.

THEATRE.—Messrs. Ryan and Foster, who have been performing at Rice's Theatre, Chicago, for some time past, will commence a series of dramatic entertainments, at Young's Hall, on Wednesday night. Messrs. R. & F. are sustained by a company of "bright stars," and as we have had no theatrical entertainments here for a long time, they will, without doubt, meet a hearty support.

SUPERIOR LETTER AND NOTE PAPER.—We are indebted to Messrs. NOONAN & MONAN for samples of very beautiful Letter and Note Paper, from the celebrated Mills of PLATNER & SMITH, at Lee, Massachusetts.—Messrs. NOONAN & MONAN are the agents of PLATNER & SMITH, and intend to keep on hand a full assortment of their paper, of all the various grades and descriptions.

KEEP COOL!—It will be seen by an advertisement that Mr. J. Rohn, the pioneer bathing master of this city, has re-opened his swimming school above the dam, and has refitted it, and put it in a more convenient and desirable shape than heretofore. Mr. Rohn is an experienced teacher of the useful art of swimming, and those who wish to have their youngsters instructed in this art, can safely place them under his care. He also invites "children of a larger growth" to come and take a bath.

THE SONS OF MALTA.—The Sons of Malta, a secret society, formed in New York last winter, and said to be composed of very choice spirits—in the flesh, of course—are increasing in numbers with astonishing rapidity. Albany, long famous for her many substantial sons of Malta, has now in her midst several Sons of Malta.—Albany Atlas.

We have quite a number of these "choice spirits" in Milwaukee, and from their demonstrations, one would be led to suppose that the object of their organization was for the propagation of Lager Beer!

SPIRITUALISM.—Miss Beebe, the well-known lecturer on this subject, will deliver two lectures, to-morrow afternoon and evening, at Treat's Hall, corner of East Water and Huron Streets. Miss B. is considered one of the first lecturers on spiritualism in the country.

Those who are desirous of hearing this subject treated in a scientific manner, would do well to go and hear her. Admission free. Lectures commence at 2½ and 7½ P. M.

PROF. GREINER.—By the number of smiling faces issuing from the Fancy Glass Blowing, No 12 Wisconsin St., we may infer there is something worth seeing. Few persons have any idea how glass is blown and spun, and the present stay of Prof. Greiner, (for 3 days longer,) will afford an opportunity, for the Lovers of Art, to satisfy their curiosity. Open day and evening. Ladies wishing glass ornaments will please call and o.

Lots on Spring Street Avenue.

THE unprecedented demand for lots on Spring St. has induced the laying off and platting of another block in the east corner of, and adjoining Palmer & Co.'s addition. They constitute David's sub division of blocks 205 in Gilfords sub division and are laid out 66 by 10 feet. They are beautifully situated, at the termination of the plank walk on the south side of Spring street; in one of the healthiest and most desirable localities of the city, and possess every attraction for persons desiring choice situations for their families a little retired from the din and bustle of business. Already negotiations are being entered into to sustain a line of Omnibuses as far as Palmer & Co.'s addition, which is also being rapidly taken up by our most industrious and worthy citizens, and which cannot fail to greatly enhance the value of real estate in this vicinity. These lots will be sold on the most reasonable terms, and an indisputable title given.
